

Bad Moon Rising is without a doubt, one of the most exciting tribute bands around today. Lead vocalist Mark Mcphail captivates audiences with show stopping performances nationwide, totally capturing the spirit that is “CCR.”

For over twenty-five years, “Creedence Clearwater Revival” has held the title of “America’s Greatest Rock n’ Roll Band.” No other group in pop music history has achieved the crossover success that “CCR” did. Although they have disbanded, it does not change the fact their music is timeless. Fans of all ages sing and dance to their songs just as much as they did a quarter of century ago.

Whether you’re a fan of rock, country folk, or rhythm & blues, CCR had it all and “Bad Moon Rising” delivers! Quite simply, they are the only show of its kind!
