

They may call themselves The Random Strangers, but musicians Larry Park, Suzanne Todd and Dave Wren are both bandmates and longtime friends. The Placerville-based performers, many of whom have been professional musicians for decades, are recognized throughout the foothill region for their eclectic sound, which fuses elements of country, roots-rock, folk, bluegrass, classic rock. George Spriggs and Johnny DuVall are the newest additions to The Random Strangers sharing their gifts and musical talents.